WORLD'S SERIES FIGURES; DELEHANTY LEADS AT BAT

Some interesting figures given out in connection with the official averages of the recent world's series played between the Pirates and Detroit:

As a team the Tigers had a batting average of .235, as compared to .221 for the National Leaguers. Eighteen stolen bases are credited to Pittsburg, as against six for

The Pirates had twelve sacrifices, while the Tigers had but four. The new world's champions tallied thirty-four runs out of forty-nine hits, while Detroit, with six hits more, made six runs less.

Detroit also won individual hitting honors. Delehanty having the highest average of the lot, with .346. Wagner, the Pittsburg topnotcher, had a percentage of .333. The others were:

Detroit-Bush and Moriarity, .261; Crawford and T. Jones, 3250; D. Jones, .233; Cobb, .231; Schmidt, .222; Stanage, .200; Mullin, .188; O'Leary, Donovan, Summers, Willetts, Works, and McIntyre, .000. Pittsburg-Leach, .320; Byrne, .250; Miller, .250; Gibson, .240; Abstein, .231; Clarke, 211; Wilson, .154; Hyatt, Adams, Camnitz, Willis, Maddox, Leifield, Phillippe, Abbaticchio, and O'Connor, .000.

Catcher Gibson, of Pittsburg, who caught every one of the seven games, accepted thirty-six chances without an error. In team fielding the Pirates ranked first, with .957, while the Tigers were second with .937.
